The Guernsey Post Ltd (Inland and Overseas Letter and Parcel Post) Scheme, 2019

GPL, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section 10 of the Post Office (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2001, as amended, hereby makes the following Scheme in respect of its Inland and Overseas Letter and Parcel Universal Postal Service:-

1. Rates of postage

- a. There shall be charged and paid for the postal items specified in Schedule 1 the rates of postage and/or fees specified in Schedule 1.

2. Restricted and Prohibited items

- a. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any postal item identified and published by GPL from time to time as being a Prohibited or Restricted item.

3. Postal items containing others for different persons

- a. If any such postal item be posted, each postal item contained may be forwarded separately to its addressee, subject to such charge as GPL may fix (not exceeding the amount of the charge which would have been payable if it had been posted separately without prepayment of postage), and such charge shall be payable by the addressee on the delivery of the item, or if the item is refused, or cannot for any other reason be delivered, the postal item may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as GPL may think fit.

4. Posting and Packing

- a. All postal items shall be made up and secured in such a manner as in the opinion of GPL is calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, to prevent any tampering with the contents, to prevent injury to any other postal item in its course of conveyance, or to any other postal equipment, or to any employee of GPL or other person who may deal with such postal item.
- b. GPL shall determine and publish on its website, from time to time, guidelines and/or requirements setting out the manner in which postal items of different categories, sizes or types should be packaged, marked and labelled for the purpose of posting, conveying or delivering by post.
- c. GPL shall determine and publish on its website, from time to time, methods setting out the manner in and requirements under which postal items of different categories, sizes or types may be posted, including:
 - i. By being handed to a representative of GPL on duty at a Post Office designated by GPL for that purpose, or

- ii. By being handed to a representative of GPL on duty in circumstances in which GPL permits to receive postal items;
 - iii. By being posted in roadside post office letter boxes.
- d. GPL may refuse to accept for posting, conveying or delivering by post postal items that do not meet the guidelines, requirements and/or methods determined and published in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a) and (b) of this section.

5. Treatment of irregular postal items

- a. Except as otherwise provided in this Scheme, any postal item which is found when in the post not to comply with a provision of the law of the country or place in which the postal item was posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass (including the Law and this Scheme), or not to be accompanied by a document required by any such provision, may be either detained or returned or given up to the sender, or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as GPL may think fit.
- b. If any postal item does not comply, or its manner of posting did not comply, with the provisions of this Scheme or any guidelines, requirements and/or methods determined and published by GPL in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme applicable to postal items of its claimed description, the item shall for all purposes be deemed to be a postal item of such description as GPL thinks fit.
- c. Where any postal item is treated as a parcel under subsection (b) of this section, additional postage shall be payable by the addressee, charged at the rate applicable to the parcel, less the amount of any postage pre-paid. If payment of the postage is refused the postal item may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as GPL may think fit.

6. Limits of size and weight

- a. GPL shall determine and publish on its website, from time to time, requirements setting out the limits of size and weight within which postal items of different categories, sizes or types may be posted.
- b. No postal item shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post unless it is within the size and weight requirements determined and published in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a) of this section.

7. Fees for dutiable postal items

- a. Where the sender of an outgoing postal item addressed to the UK or Isle of Man desires that the postal item be delivered to the addressee free of any import VAT which would otherwise be payable by the addressee the sender shall pay at the time of posting such sum as is required.

- b. Where an incoming postal item contains any article liable to any tax, duty or impôt duty:
 - i. The tax, duty or impôt duty shall be payable by the addressee with a further clearance fee payable, as specified in Schedule 2;
 - ii. The addressee shall be notified in writing by GPL of the tax, duty or impôt duty payable and will be required to pay the duties to and collect the item from GPL.

8. Payments of postage and fees

- a. Except as GPL may otherwise direct, and subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the postage and fees payable on every postal item, and the fees payable in respect of postal facilities, shall be prepaid.
- b. The provisions of this Scheme with reference to prepayment of postage and fees shall not apply to the postage payable on business reply items, or to the postage and fees payable on postal items with respect to which GPL has entered into an arrangement with the senders for the grant of credit facilities.
- c. Payment of postage or fees payable under the provisions of this Scheme may be denoted:-
 - i. By adhesive postage stamps; or
 - ii. By embossed, impressed or printed postage stamps; or
 - iii. By means of impressions made by printing or stamping devices operated under the direction, or with authority, of GPL; or
 - iv. In such other manner as GPL may from time to time permit.
- d. No stamp or impression which is imperfect, mutilated, defaced or written, printed or impressed on, shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees.
- e. No stamp indicating on its face the payment of a registration fee (with or without postage) shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees on any unregistered postal item.
- f. Postal items on which payment of postage is denoted or intended to be denoted by an impression made by a printing or stamping device authorised by GPL shall be accepted only at such post offices, within such hours, and subject to such conditions and restrictions as GPL may consider appropriate.
- g. Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the stamp or impression denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed in such position on the envelope, cover, wrapper, postcard or other form as GPL may consider appropriate.

- h. Where the sender of a postal item has posted that item without pre-payment of all or part of the applicable rate of postage and/or fees, GPL may recover from the intended recipient of that postal item a sum equivalent to the unpaid or underpaid rate of postage and the unpaid or underpaid fees set out in Schedule 2 prior to its conveyance or delivery to or collection by the intended recipient.

9. Charges for postal facilities

- a. There shall be charged and paid for the postal facilities specified in Schedule 2 the charges specified or referred to in that Schedule, and those facilities shall be subject to this Scheme.

10. Redirection by the public

- a. Any postal item (other than a business reply packet) may be redirected from its original address, or any substituted address, to the same addressee either within or outside the Bailiwick in accordance with the provisions of any procedures published by GPL in accordance with the provisions of section 14(a)(vi) of this Scheme.
- b. In any case where GPL considers that a postal item, claiming to be redirected, has been posted as a redirected item with a view to evading the payment of any postage or fee chargeable upon the item under the provisions of this Scheme, it may, before the delivery of the item, require the addressee (who shall furnish proof of identity to the satisfaction of GPL) to sign a receipt for it.
- c. Any redirected item which appears to have been opened before being redirected in a manner designed to evade the payment of any postage chargeable hereon by law, shall be dealt with and charged as an unpaid item of the same description, or otherwise dealt with as GPL may think fit.

11. Business Account postage rates

- a. There shall be charged and paid for the postal items specified in Schedule 1 for business customers holding a GPL credit account the rates of postage and/or fees specified in Schedule 1 for business customers.

12. Business Postal Facilities

- a. There shall be charged and paid for the postal facilities specified in Schedule 2 the fees and charges specified in Schedule 2.

13. Claims and Complaints

- a. GPL shall determine and publish on its website, from time to time, procedures and requirements setting out how the sender or intended recipient of a postal item can make a complaint in respect of postal items that have been damaged, delayed or not been received.
- b. A procedure or requirement determined in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall include provision for:
 - i. The process for and timeframe within which complaints and claims must be made;
 - ii. The maximum compensation that can be claimed;
 - iii. A process for dealing with unresolved complaints and claims.

14. General

- a. GPL shall determine and publish on its website, from time to time, its general terms and conditions, and procedures, requirements and/or terms and conditions for:
 - i. The treatment of postal items posted without prepayment of part of all of the applicable rate of postage and/or fees;
 - ii. The treatment of postal items that cannot be delivered;
 - iii. The treatment of postal items addressed to deceased persons;
 - iv. The treatment of postal items for recipients serving with the British Armed Forces;
 - v. The treatment, posting, packaging and marking of postal items , literature and equipment designed for use by the blind or visually impaired;
 - vi. The provision of services by GPL for redirection of mail from its original address to the same addressee;
 - vii. The provisions for postal items addressed to a post office and to be called for by the intended recipient under a Poste Restante service;
 - viii. The provisions for postal packets posted on ships;
 - ix. The provision of private postal box (PO Box) facilities;
 - x. The provision of services for registered and insured post;
 - xi. The provision of timed delivery and collection services, freepost services and business reply services.
- b. The postal facilities referred to in this Scheme may be provided by GPL at such times, during such periods, and at such post offices, in such circumstances, and on such terms and conditions (not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Scheme) as GPL may determine and publish from time to time.

15. Variation of route

- a. Where any postal item from its size, weight, character, or condition is in the opinion of GPL unfit for transmission by the route by which such item would ordinarily travel in the post, such item may be detained and forwarded by such other routes as GPL may think fit.

16. Remission of postage

- a. GPL may remit the whole or part of any postage or other sums chargeable under this Scheme in such cases or classes of case such as GPL may determine.

17. Revocation of Previous Schemes

- a. This Scheme replaces the previous Schemes made under the provisions of section 10 of the Law.
- b. The following Orders, which are deemed under the provisions of section 46 of the Law to have effect as if they were provisions of a Scheme made under section 10 of the Law, are treated as revoked and no longer of any effect:
 - i. The Guernsey Post Ltd (Inland and Overseas Letter and Parcel Post Scheme, 2018)
