Our Customer Charter makes a commitment to the residents and businesses of the Islands and we continually strive to improve our service and to develop ever closer relationships with all our customers. Our Customer Charter sets out the standards that Guernsey Post's customers can expect, telling you how to get the information you need and what you can do if we fail to meet those standards. It also explains the services we offer and how you can help us to carry on improving them.

In summary we undertake to:

- Make posting facilities easily accessible and appropriate to meet the community's needs.
- Make Standard Letter deliveries to each local address five days a week, except for public holidays.
- Make parcel deliveries for all guaranteed items on Saturdays.
- Collect post from all posting facilities five days a week Monday to Friday, except for public holidays.
- Publish clear and current information on competitively priced, secure and reliable services, including a range of economy and time specific choices for domestic, UK, European and international destinations.
- Report on our performance against the standards set by the Guernsey Competition & Regulatory Authority (GCRA), on our website.
- Provide Customer Service contact details in all our communications through our retail outlets and on our roadside postboxes.
- Provide a professional, courteous and considerate service at all times.
- Monitor customer satisfaction with our services and seek improvements in all areas to best meet customer's needs.
- Respond swiftly and efficiently to customer enquiries and complaints.
- Exercise the utmost integrity in providing our services by not disclosing any information about our customers without their consent, except when required to do so by law.

If you have a compliment or complaint about our service we'd like to know about it so please contact our Customer Service Team or fill in a Customer Comment form in any of our retail branches. We strive to acknowledge 99% of all complaints within two working days and we monitor our management of enquiries and complaints very closely.

How to make a complaint

Complaints can be made by post or fax, by telephone, by email or by completing a Customer Comment form available from our retail branches and on our website.

Unresolved complaints

When a complaint remains unresolved, either because you are dissatisfied with the outcome or the target time for resolution has passed, you can choose to take the matter further.

You have the right to contact the Department of Commerce and Employment Trading Standards Service (details left). If it finds that the matter is not adequately resolved, Trading Standards will act impartially to try to find a fair outcome for all parties. If Trading Standards believes we have acted reasonably you will be informed, but if your complaint is still unresolved you can ask for the matter to be referred to the Guernsey Competition & Regulatory Authority (GCRA), which will receive a report from the Trading Standards Service. Both the complainant and Guernsey Post will receive copies of the Trading Standards report and it will be up to GCRA to decide on the outcome of the complaint. The Trading Standards Service will periodically report to GCRA with details of any complaints it receives.

These procedures do not in any way prevent you, as a customer, from seeking legal resolution through the courts.

Lost or Damaged Items

- Compensation is subject to confirmation by Guernsey Post Limited and in the case of damaged items it is subject to adherence to the packing guidelines.
- Special Delivery items that are being sent back to the UK for return and repair or high value items are open to inspection by HMRC Border Force in the UK. Recipients of the item will therefore experience a delay, as they will be contacted by Border Force UK and asked to complete a C88A form. Recipients will need to comply with the terms & conditions of this form before the items are released.
- If compensation has been paid for a missing item which is delivered at a later date or returned, you will be liable for the reimbursement to Guernsey Post Ltd. for the compensation paid.
- No Guernsey Post services offer compensation for consequential loss.

We strive to acknowledge 99% of all lost or damaged item claims within two working days.

Enquiries and claims can be made by the sender or by the addressee. A claim for compensation can be made if the item does not arrive within the service standard period or if the item arrives damaged.

We may need to inspect damaged or delayed items and their packaging, so please keep them. When submitting a claim for loss or damage you will need evidence of the cost of your item, plus your proof of posting (some services provide receipts with unique identifiers; for others a free certificate of posting can be requested at the time of posting).

Claims for compensation must be made within the specified time frame set out in the summary table below. You will then be advised of the results of your claim with compensation, if appropriate, awarded in accordance with the service used, usually no later than one working week from the date the claim is closed.

Enquiry time frame

Destination of item posted	Claim must be made within	Resolution period
